CHINA MOBILIZING PICKED CORPS TO INVADE MANCHUKUO

SUBMARINE RAMMED BY MINESWEEPER

Mishap During Naval Exercises.

H.M.S. DUNDALK AND
H.M.S. H33.

London, To-day.
Another terrible submarine disaster was narrowly averted, when H.M. Submarine, H33 was rammed by a minesweeper during naval exercises off Portland Bill, in the English Channel. The submarine fortunately was holed above the water-line, and after temporary repairs she was able to limp to port.

The collision occurred during a dense fog, and the minesweeper, H.M.S. Dundalk, was upon the submarine before any warning could be given. The Dundalk came athwart the H33 and for a moment it appeared as if there would be a terrible impact. The Dundalk, however, swung sharply and caught the submarine in a glancing blow, stoving in several plates above the water-line. The Dundalk suffered no damage, and no casualties are reported.

The accident calls attention to the virtue of the H. Class submarine, which is the smallest vessel left in the Navy at the present day, and yet it is capable of crossing the Atlantic under its own power. — Reuter.

DE VALERA'S TRADE WAR CONDEMNED

Great "All Ireland" Group Revolts.

WANT MARKETS BACK

Dublin, To-day.
An immense "All Ireland" organisation has been formed, and a standing committee was elected at a great convention attended by farmers and ratepayers from all parts of the Free State, held at the Mansion House here to consider the situation arising out of the economic war with Britain.

The Chairman declared he wanted to weld the farmers into one central body and suggested the new organisation should be named the "United Farmers' and Ratepayers' Association."

Resolutions were passed condemning the Government's "jingo policy" and calling on them immediately to restore the overseas market and obtain preferences therein to which the Free State people were entitled. A warning that, pending a return to normality it was impossible to pay rates, land or annuities and reminding the Government that it was impossible to develop a home market by dissipating resources and driving out capital, the meeting went on record as condemning the policies of Mr. de Valera as a certain means of impoverishing the country. — Reuter.

TYPHOON NEARING

The Royal Observatory's weather report to-day states: Pressure is highest over S. Manchuria.

The typhoon is situated about 200 miles to the south-east of Hong Kong, moving N.W. at 10 m.p.h.

Forecast: N.E. winds, fresh to a gale; cloudy, rain.

Lieutenant-General Honjo, who has directed the Japanese seizure and attempted pacification of Manchuria for almost a year, is shown on the right above as he was leaving Mukden for Chinchow in an airplane to bid goodbye to Manchukuo officials. General Honjo is being replaced by General Muto.

TYPHOON NEARING HONG KONG

Reported Under 200 Miles Distant.

HARBOUR VESSELS WARNED.

The typhoon threatening Hong Kong is within 200 miles of the Colony, travelling on a course which will inevitably bring it here, according to reports received late this afternoon.

Number 7 typhoon signal is still flying and Government officers on the harbour are warning shipping to seek shelter at once.

Mr. C. W. Jeffries, director of the Royal Observatory, told the "China Mail" that heavy rains are expected late to-day. The exact force of the impending storm is not known. Mr. Jeffries stated that it is a very unusual storm as it has taken so long to materialize.

Three large ships in the harbour have warned all passengers that the approaching storm may make it necessary to put to sea at any moment.

The typhoon rescue tug, Kau Sing, spent the afternoon sailing up and down the harbour clearing it of sampans and junks.

EARTHQUAKE SHAKES TWO N.Z. CENTRES

Damage Heavy But Injured Few.

SHOCKS CONTINUING.

Wellington, To-day.
Extensive damage has been done at Gisborne and Wairoa by an earthquake shock, which occurred at 1.30 p.m. in the Hawke Bay District, which was devastated by a quake in February, 1931. The tremor, which was felt over a wide area of the North Island, was the worst ever experienced at Gisborne and was greater at Wairoa than last year's.

Public and other buildings in both towns were damaged, communications were temporarily severed, the water supply interrupted, but casualties were slight. Only three were injured. Minor shocks continue. Napier and Hastings, which were partly wrecked in the previous shock, escaped serious damage. — Reuter.

NIGHT HIDES MYSTERIOUS AIR VISITOR

Roars Over Hong Kong
And Kowloon.

OFFICIALS ARE PUZZLED

Mystery surrounds the appearance of an aeroplane which flew over Hong Kong last night in a westerly direction.

The plane, even a vague description of which is not available, was apparently seen twice around Kowloon Bay, passing over Lyemum Pass and the Kai Tak Air Port, and possibly seeking a landing place.

The machine had a light, but the colour of the body is unknown. After flying over Kowloon Bay, the machine went westward towards Repulse Bay. Nothing is known or has been heard of the plane since. Police are investigating.

Enquiries elicited the fact that the Superintendent of Airways knows nothing about the machine, and the Manager of the Far Eastern Aviation Ltd., stated, in reply to a China Mail representative, that the machine was definitely not one of theirs.

A Police circular states that if the machine is seen again, a report is to be made to the Divisional Superintendent of Police, at Kowloon.

GANDHI WILL LEAVE PRISON WHEN FASTING

Government Decides
On Its Action.

SPECIAL CONSIDERATION

London, To-day.
The Government has decided to remove Mahatma Gandhi from prison as soon as he begins his fast to a suitable residence, where the only restriction will be that he will be directed to remain there.

Meanwhile, India bodies are doing all in their power to prevent the commencement of the fast, seeking some compromise in the communal policy with the Government.

The authorities are guarding against any disturbance of the non-violence. — Reuter.

AMERICAN TRADE WITH SOVIET.

Company in Canada
Makes Exchange

LOW-PRICE PRODUCTS.

New York, To-day.
The New York Times learns that the Aluminium Company of Canada, Limited, which is controlled by Ambassador Andrew Mellon of the United States diplomatic body, has contracted with Soviet Russia to exchange about $1,000,000 worth of aluminium ware, at a price for below that prevailing in the United States, for crude oil shipments which are already en route to Montreal from the Black Sea.

The newspaper says the deal is the first of a series of Russo-American barterings and is significant because interests as prominent industrially and politically as Mr. Mellon's are turning to Russia for an outlet. — Reuter.

BRITAIN IS SILENT ON ARMS TOPIC.

Germany's Demands
Not Answered.

London, To-day.
It is learned that the German armaments claim has been under discussion at the Foreign Office for the last two or three days but that the British attitude still to be definitely decided.

It is possible that no statement in this matter will be forthcoming from Downing Street until after the Disarmament Conference has done what it can to ease the situation. — Reuter.

ANDREWS DEFEAT CANTON PLAYERS Fincher Loses Both Singles.

RUMJAHN AN ABSENTEE

E. D. Andrews gained comfortable victories over Canton's leading players in the exhibition games played during his visit to the British Consul-General. E. C. Fincher, however, lost to both Lau and Lai in his two singles games. Sindar Rumjahn, the Colony champion, did not take part in the exhibitions as was at one time anticipated, though he was in Canton at the time.

The British International player arrived back in the Colony this morning with E. C. Fincher.

Scores:
E. D. Andrews beat Lau 6-0
Lau beat E. C. Fincher 6-3
Andrews beat Lai 6-2
Lai beat Fincher 6-4
Andrews and Fincher beat Lai and Wahab 6-0

FURTHER DISCUSSION IN COTTON DISPUTE

Another Effort to Secure Settlement To-day

London, To-day.
A joint conference of the representatives of the employers and operatives in the manufacturing section of the cotton industry, held further meeting yesterday and will resume its efforts to secure a settlement of the dispute this afternoon. Meanwhile a sub-committee is proceeding with the discussion of questions on the agenda, which are grouped under four headings: firstly, the re-establishment of collective bargaining; secondly, machinery to ensure the honouring of any agreements reached; thirdly, wages; fourthly, reinstatement. The Committee recommended that the Government should consider a state of emergency. — Reuter.

19TH ARMY VETERANS CHOSEN

MILITARY FORCE

NANKING FAVOURS
ACTION

Must Fight For Her Own Defence.

NATION'S WAR FEVER

Nanking, To-day.
The consensus of opinion in Nanking is that Chinese diplomatic efforts will be futile unless they are backed by military force.

The official "Central News," emphasising this point, recalls that when Belgium was invaded in 1914 she appealed to the Powers to uphold the Treaties, but that meanwhile the Belgian Army put up a stubborn resistance. The paper is of the opinion that China should do likewise. — Reuter.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

War Fever Fell.

Shanghai, To-day.
The war fever has risen to dangerous heights, according to reports reaching here, and the capital is being deluged with demands for immediate defensive or punitive measures in Manchukuo. Thousands of men are prepared to fight for their country and military leaders are offering their services from all parts of the Republic.

20 Arrested.
There were nothing but minor Communist demonstrations here yesterday, to mark the day of recognition of Manchukuo by Japan, and the only arrests which were made were among Chinese who were setting off fire-crackers in celebration of the Moon Cake Festival.

Yesterday passed uneventfully, except for minor Communist demonstration which were easily kept in hand. Slogans were chalked on walls and handbills scattered surreptitiously in the streets, but beyond that none ventured to go. The presence of armed Japanese patrols in Hongkew and strong Municipal Police pickets in other areas, kept the situation well in hand all day and during the night.

Some of Hongkew's Chinese residents were surrounded by police when they commenced to set off fire-crackers. The noise of the celebration of the Mid-Autumn Festival, it was feared, would cause misapprehension and possibly clashes. From a distance, the fireworks gave the impression of machine gun shots. Twenty were arrested.

War Loan Conversion Continues

$1,885,000,000 Already Agreed To Convert.

London, To-day.
The money market is cheered by the official announcement that conversion requests are continuing to arrive in respect of the five per cent War Loan holdings.

Of the total War Loan of $2,085,000,000, holders of $1,885,000,000 of bonds have already agreed to convert these to the lower interest-bearing securities. The saving to the Government amounts to millions sterling. — Reuter.

GENERALS PETITION NANKING FOR WAR

TROOPS MAY SELECT EXPEDITION
LEADER

RUSH OF VOLUNTEERS.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

SHANGHAI, TO-DAY.

ALTHOUGH EARLIER REPORTS FROM NANKING DECLARED THAT CHINA, FOR THE TIME-BEING, HAD DROPPED PLANS FOR THE IMMEDIATE INVASION OF MANCHUKUO WITH A POWERFUL PUNITIVE EXPEDITION, THE SITUATION HAS BEEN CHANGED BY THE RECEIPT, AT THE NATIONAL CAPITAL, OF A PETITION FROM CHINESE GENERALS URGING UPON THE GOVERNMENT THE FORMATION OF SUCH A FORCE.

A SENSATION WAS CAUSED HERE BY THE REPORT THAT ALREADY GENERALS CHAO YI-CHIEN AND WUNG CHAO-HUAN HAVE COMMENCED MOBILIZATION OF A PICKED FORCE OF 7,000 VETERANS OF THE 19TH ROUTE ARMY WHO SAW FIGHTING IN THE SHANGHAI REGION. THESE MEN, IT IS UNDERSTOOD, ARE TO FORM THE NUCLEUS OF AN EXPEDITION INTO MANCHUKUO.

Inasmuch as there are too many army leaders who have volunteered their services as commanders of this force, the selection of a chief will probably be left with the troops themselves. A commander may be chosen by votes of the men of the army.

The picked 7,000, it is said, were recruited during the Sino-Japanese struggle at Shanghai and equipped for campaigning at that time.

FRANCE WON'T ACT BY HERSELF

'Disagreeable Surprises'
Seen In Orient.

Paris, To-day.

The French Government has not yet received official notification of Japan's recognition of Manchukuo nor China's note of protest in the matter, but it is understood, however, that France will not take isolated action but keep in close touch with Britain, United States and Geneva. It is felt here that it is essential to take cognizance of the Lytton Report before any opinion can be expressed.

While the Press generally maintains the same expectant reserve as official circles, "Le Temps" foresees "disagreeable surprises in the Far East." This paper remarks that elementary politeness should be prompted and the parties concerned should await the Lytton Report and conclusions of the League in the matter before taking any step which would profoundly modify the problem of Sino-Japanese relations.

"Le Temps" hopes Japan will in no case withdraw from the League, since such a step would only transfer the problem from the League to the Nine-Power Signatories, which it is in everybody's interest to avoid. It urges Tokyo to reflect on "what is authorised by defence of legitimate interests and what is forbidden by respect of the rights within the bounds of international co-operation and undertakings signed in good faith." — Reuter.

Berlin is Unmoved

Berlin, To-day.

Official Japanese recognition of Manchukuo has not evoked much surprise, as the development was anticipated. Official circles declare that German political interests in the Far East are not in any way at stake and as far as trade relations are concerned, it is pointed out Japan

Meanwhile, the Government is considering the petition submitted by military leaders of the nation, asking for permission to wage for the recovery of Manchuria. If the Government decides in favour of this move, the picked army, actually the flower of China's fighting units, will proceed at once to Manchukuo's frontier and push into the domain of the puppet Government.

Other Units to Aid
Other forces, of course, would be despatched to assist the selected unit. There are already several thousands of volunteers in the Jehol country, a strong body under General Ma, and there are thousands of men ready to join such a punitive expedition all over the country.

The attitude of the Canton Government is known to be favourable to a declaration of war, if not in fact, in action. Through this common desire for action, it is felt, the north and south may find a ground for closer harmony and union.

has always favoured the "Open Door." There are no intimations received from the Government's representatives in the Far East that Japan has changed her views.

Newspapers give prominence to the Protocol ratification and also China's protests, but up to now have refrained from commenting, except the Monarchist paper "Kreuzzeitung," which fears intensification of the Sino-Japanese tension might lead to war without a declaration. This paper also expects Russia and United States to seize this opportunity of abandoning their disinterestedness. — Reuter.

Lytton Report

Geneva, To-day.

Mr. Sawada, Japanese delegate to the League of Nations, interviewed the Secretary-General, Sir Eric Drummond, to-day, and requested delay in examination, but not in publication, of the Lytton Report, pending receipt of Japan's consideration of the subject. It would take six weeks, for Japan's special representative to arrive at Geneva, he added, from the date of the Lytton Report. — Reuter.

GAY COSTUMES DOT ROME'S BEACHES.

Italy Relaxes And Enjoys Herself.

RESORTS THROGGED.

Venice Has Trouble To Keep Clientele.

Rome, on an average, 35,000 Italians take advantage of the low-rate excursions offered by the Italian State railways every Sunday. This has turned out to be one of the most profitable forms of enterprises undertaken by the Ministry of Communications and while money may be lost on the high-priced de-luxe trains because they travel only partially filled, a nice profit goes to the railroads for the wretchedly cheap Sunday excursions.

While one can travel on these excursions from Rome to Venice, some 380 miles, return trip for $3, the trains are always full and there is not lost space for unsold chairs or berths. A profit of at least ten per cent. is made on every trip.

Beaches Swarming.

Besides, the local beaches and playgrounds of every community do well on the Sunday trade. Rome's beach, located 15 miles from the capital, is swarmed on Sundays and bathing cabins are at a premium. Even week-days certain types of cabins have been all taken for the season so that the beach offers an aspect of somewhat mild prosperity all the time, despite the depression and the million of unemployed which hangs on the Italian commercial budget.

Gaiety, to-day, goes so far in Rome as to copy the Venetian style of donning pyjamas early in the morning and keeping them on until the late afternoon. Rome ladies now leave home for the beach in sunning coloured combinations, mostly of the midly type and get into their cars and drive the fifteen-mile stretch to the blue Mediterranean. There the prevailing suits have followed the American pattern and are made "for swimming as well as bathing."

Not too brisk business, however, flourishes at all the Italian bathing resorts. The depression is being felt even where no foreigners frequent. Beaches like Viareggio, Rimini, Francavilla, Abbazia and others are now just barely putting on the activity of their former prosperity. They suffered a bad June because of the weather, while July is better but not up to the standard.

Venice is smiling but Venice, nevertheless feels the pinch perhaps more than any. An English newspaper gave her famous Lido a terrible blow by publishing that no eating nor dancing was allowed in bathing-suits and pyjamas. Hurriedly the hotel magnates got busy on the long distance phones with Rome newsmen to tell them that was all a mistake and that the Lido was just as free and exotic as ever. "There is eating and dancing in bathing suits and pyjamas," said that hotel men, and then along came an official government communiqué to back them up. The communiqué told the world that the Lido beach in Venice had not changed and that the authorities had not prohibited the curtailment on the famous Venetian liberties in the interest of public morality.

Venetian Show Goes On.
The crowds are not as large as in prosperity days but the Venetian show goes on. Nothing could take

(Continued from previous Column.) away St. Mark's Cathedral and the Venetian Lagoon. The prices are less and bargains in Venetian specialties are offered on every hand. Venice lives on tourists more than any other Italian city and when they do not come, Venice suffers. Her port is not enough to give employment to all her historic seafaring stock, so that the mariners for the lagoon still have to ply their gondolas over the placid canals for a living. When Venice is not filled with tourists, the summer for which everyone was looking forward to, turns out to be misfortune. This year, there is business but not enough to keep everyone going.

Venice can take tourists from all lands. She not alone depends on American tourists but on the English, the Germans, and the whole of the remnants of the former Austro-Hungarian empire. It is accessible to them all by direct rail-road routes and is prepared to accommodate thousands at a time. When these thousands do not come, merchants, bead-makers, glass manufacturers, lace factories, shawl embroiders and gondoliers suffer all alike, while the hotel-keepers wring their hands and wonder where their clientele which was recruited from the world has gone.

Grandma Springs Surprises

Blew Smoke Rings In The "Eighties"

WHO HANDLED SUITORS

(By An Observer).

Whenever I smoke in grandma's presence it is time-honoured custom between us that I should first solemnly offer her a cigarette, which she as solemnly refuses. I was therefore much surprised one day when she took and lit one, and began to emit perfect rings of smoke. She laughed at my astonishment.

"Why child," she said, "I smoked cigarettes before you were born." She would not talk much more about it, although I have a shrewd suspicion that she dropped smoking on her wedding day because it would have shocked grandpa.

Yet the incident set me thinking. I questioned her to try to discover whether these sheltered Victorian misses were really so proper as we fancy they were.

Take Punch! Grandma, for instance, for all her delicate air, drank her mulled ale on a cold winter's night, and took her share of a bowl of punch so often as it was brewed. Grandma's own grandma kept up the good old Elizabethan fashion of a hearty breakfast, opening the day on a breakfast and a pot of beer.

At great-grand-grandma's school the young ladies were allowed to smoke pipes, as it was thought that tobacco provided excellent antidote to any fevers and other contagious diseases which might be about.

The Victorian Miss might not have been taught in a way to enable her to pass examinations, but she was clever enough to realise the advantages of keeping up the tradition that a young lady hardly knew how to say "boo" to a goose.

When, for example, my own grandma accepted in one short day the proposals of marriage of three eligible young men, none of whom she had the slightest intention of marrying, she was not in the least embarrassed. A Modern Miss might have wondered how to get out of the mess, but grandma did not worry a bit. She had not had the heart to refuse any of the young men's passionate pleadings; she could not bear to make people unhappy. She relied on that dignified, reliable figure, her Victorian Mama.

At the price of a very little scolding she was able to shift the burden of awkward explanations on to Mama's broad shoulders. It was Mama who, next day, explained to three young men in turn that dear Angela was really too young to know her own mind; that they must not be cross with her darling; that six months later, perhaps one of the suitors might have better luck. It sounded convincing and reasonable from Mama.

Modern young women might almost envy grandma the ease with which she escaped from the consequences of her own actions. In those days, when women stand on their own feet and are acknowledged to have some mental capacity, they do not get off so lightly.

"CARELESS LADY"—KING'S THEATRE.

Joan Bennett, the beautiful blonde star of the screen, and John Boles, who, of late, has cast off the mantle of singer and taken on "heavier" roles, appear together in the lead in Fox's pleasing film "Careless Lady", the current attraction at the King's Theatre.

As the title is a little misleading, do not hope to be shocked by this pleasant version of the 'Ugly Duckling' theme. Joan Bennett plays a shy, unpopular and plain young woman of wealth, who craves for men's attention. Lought up by maiden aunts in the garments of the Nineties, she goes shopping in the city, where a wise shop girl (cleverly enacted by Minna Gombell) offers to show her life.

From them on Joan steps out, and complications follow, these including a raid on a speakeasy, and a Paris gigolo who has had intentions.

Weldon Heyburn, seen in "Silent Witness", Josephine Hull, and Nora Lane also appear in this film. See it!

"NIGHT COURT"—QUEEN'S THEATRE.

Walter Huston and Phillip Holmes register some of the finest acting of their careers in "Night Court", current attraction at the Queen's Theatre. Huston gives an idea of how corrupt a judge can be when he makes up his mind to go in for that sort of thing. Holmes attempts and succeeds in portraying a youth caught in the snare of evil that the judge has woven about the city.

The picture deals largely with life in the night tribunals of American cities, the lower courts where the judges are offered no end of opportunities to turn their profession into criminal pursuits. Huston monopolizes the early sequences of the film, creating a new role for himself that should outlive the majority of characters he has played in recent months.

The crime angle, while predominant throughout, is not overplayed. The spectator is given an opportunity to see how a night court operates. Petty offenders pass in long parade before the hypocritical judge and are given sentences far in excess of their crimes. Hardened criminals are let off and a smooth-tongued lawyer appears before the judge in private with the necessary lucre to keep the city's wheels well oiled for crime.

Anita Page as the young wife and me r thrown into jail because he had accidentally stumbled across evidence that would have brought about the conviction of Huston, is convincing. The role, although short, is high-powered and gives Anita a chance to do some serious acting.

Lewis Stone as the leader of the reform element adds another excellent characterization to his already formidable list. John Miljan as the crafty night court lawyer does likewise.

"CAUGHT CHEATING"—CENTRAL THEATRE.

Charlie Murray and George Sidney, the inimitable comedy pair, whose appearance together on the screen always brings laughter, embark on a "stepping out" trip in their latest comedy hit "Caught Cheating", now playing at the Central Theatre. Both fall for two pretty gold-diggers, and the result is a load of laughter.

In conjunction with this film there is also being shown "Nice Women", Sydney Fox's greatest triumph. Miss Fox appeared opposite Gary Cooper in "City Street".

"WINGS"—ORIENTAL THEATRE.

One of the most remarkable sound synchronisation films ever made is now showing at the Oriental Theatre. "Wings" is the Paramount epic of the "Aces" of the World War and is a marvellous piece of realism.

Richard Arlen, Gray Cooper, Charles Rogers and Clara Bow are featured players.

"BUT THE FLESH IS WEAK"—QUEEN'S THEATRE.

British races, a London playhouse, and the gathering places of the high society in the British capital are woven into a romance and comedy interlarded with a delightful love story, in "But the Flesh is Weak," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's new Robert Montgomery starring picture coming on Sunday to the Queen's Theatre.

The picture, based on Ivor Novello's famous London and New York stage success, "The Truth Game," shows Montgomery as a debonair and aristocratic London fortune hunter who tries to marry for money until another girl comes along with whom he falls in love.

"NIGHT COURT"—QUEEN'S THEATRE.

If you like your screen fare red-blooded and juicy in drama, you'll have a robust appetite for "Night Court." Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's newest offering, which is showing on Wednesday at the Queen's Theatre. Here is a daring picture, presented in a striking manner, splendid in entertainment values.

Directed by W. S. Van Dyke from an original story by Mark Hollinger and Charles Reahan, the film takes as its premise the situation of an unscrupulous man, occupying the bench of a magistrate, and using his court power to further the criminal activities in which he

A splendid array of stage and the latest Paramount British Production, "Man Of Mayfair," which will be shown at the King's Theatre starting on Sunday.

Jack Buchanan is the star, in the part of a titled "man about town," whose love for a pretty dancer leads him into some delightfully humorous situations, and Joan Barry is his leading lady, Nora Swindburne, heroine of "These Charming People," Warwick Ward, one of our finest screen actors; Ellaline Terriss and Lilian Braithwaite, both stage and screen celebrities; Cyril Raymond, Sebastian Smith, Charles Quartermaine, and J. Fisher White complete the brilliant cast.

"CARELESS LADY"—KING'S THEATRE.

Hollywood is revealing a few of her disappointments to Weldon Heyburn, one of the newest Fox Films players.

In making "Careless Lady" the Fox Films comedy to be shown at the King's Theatre next Thursday, the script called for Heyburn, in his role as the New England golf champion, to win a hard-fought title match by sinking a long stymied putt at the last hole.

A professional golfer was employed to make the putt for the young actor, but found the pin very elusive in several consecutive putts.

Guy Bolton wrote the screen play and dialogue from the original story by Reita Lambert.

Manchukuo.

Japan has carried out her often-declared policy in regard to Manchuria and the recognition of the puppet state has been accomplished with less trouble than had been expected. Actually the Japanese acknowledgment of the independence of Manchukuo means little. There is no change of attitude by any of the interested parties and Tokyo's latest move is mainly a formal one.
After all, recognition by the parent of a puppet state of its own creation is not extraordinary,
and this diplomatic move loses any value through the fact that the rest of the world has not, and shows no intention to recognize the new state. The main significance of the signing of the treaty yesterday is that it constitutes an affront to the League of Nations and is designed obviously to embarrass Geneva on the eve of the receipt of the Lytton report. The League's position is made all the more difficult by virtue of the fact that Japan will withdraw from the League if that body makes any decision disagreeable to the Island Empire.
The hopes held that the Lytton report may present a solution are rapidly fading and even the more optimistic are now reconciled to the fact that the report — and the subsequent actions of the League — will be harmless, or at least ineffective enough to be valuable as a contribution to the dispute. Nanking has filed a forceful protest against yesterday's treaty but the ineptitude at Geneva leaves faint prospect of any firm action being taken. The world is facing many acute problems besides the Far Eastern crisis and the prolonged nature of the dispute has caused interest to wane considerably. A stiffening in attitude can be expected from most of the Powers
but even from the United States and Soviet Russia, the two nations which have most to fear from any Japanese domination of the Pacific, forcible action is unlikely. Antagonism from China will hinder Japanese development of her new acquisition and in this connection the rumour that a punitive expedition may be sent to Manchuria arouse speculation of the possibility of any further outbreak of warfare. The activities of the "Volunteers" are proving a great source of worry to the Japanese and any reinforcement from China would aggravate the position. The Japanese are boycott is continuing and there is anxiety concerning Japan's reply to this effective weapon.

Shanghai and Nanking are exceedingly restless and the possibility now that the treaty has increased tension, is fraught with grave possibilities. Nanking should not hesitate to declare a firm policy immediately as delay and uncertainty may produce undisciplined and rash outbreaks which would be attended by only harmful results.

Extinct Galileans.

To Archbishop Ussher, who thought human history a matter of 4,000 years, Elijah must have been a Dawn Man. Only 3,000 years ago the prophet climbed Carmel to pray for rain and watch for "a little cloud out of the sea like a man's hand." On a ledge below him slept in death men who had hunted over Canaan fully 25,000 years before.
Their discoverer, Theodore Mc-Cown of Yale, made it clear at the recent International Congress of Prehistoric and Proto-historic Sciences that because of them we must revise our conception of the culture of Galilee when the last sheets of ice were melting and the earth was bare for civilization. No ancestors of Elijah were these extinct men, but Neanderthals who differed as much from those in Europe as Arabs of our day differ from Germans. They had the thick, beetling brows, the shuffling
gait, the stoop of their European contemporaries, but they were set apart by their chins, their higher foreheads, the backs of their heads, their deep, heavy jaws, their modern faces. Because of their distinctiveness
Sir Arthur Keith considers them worthy of a special name.
Henceforth we must associate Paleanthropus Palestinus with the Holy Land.

Despite their groping toward civilization, evidenced by their tools and their familiarity with fire, nature tossed these Galileans aside. Out of such stuff no Shakespeare, Beethoven or Edison could be fashioned. We look at the Java Men, Chinese primitives, Rhodesian Men, Heidelbergers, Chellean and others that have come and gone, only to realize that there was something genetically unstable in the first anthropoid. No wonder that scientists like Keith ask what man will be like a million years hence. Tossed on the sea of circumstance, carried forward in the past by forces of which he knew nothing, do his cumulative discoveries about himself and his environment show that some day he will learn to direct his own evolution.
That the question of man's past is not a mere academic one is shown by the fact that the discovery of the extinct Galileans has already led to a re-examination of the evidence of the evolution of man.

ANTI-WAR CROWDS FIGHT POLICE.

Numerous Arrests In Parisian Riots.

COMBATIVE PACIFISTS.

Paris, Sept. 13.
Clashes between the police and anti-war demonstrators, in the course of which 10 policemen were injured and more than 100 persons arrested, formed to-day the main topic of conversation in the capital.
More than 7,000 persons had attended a meeting convened by the International Committee of the Amsterdam Congress against War, which itself passed off quietly.
However, about 10,000 people, who in vain attempted to enter the overcrowded hall, had to wait in front of the building. When the police, reinforced by mounted Republican Guards, tried to disperse the crowd, the demonstrators stormed some nearby cafes and seized chairs, bottles, glasses and other things, which they hurled at the police, who only under the greatest difficulties succeeded in clearing the streets.—

AMERICAN ATTITUDE

Paris, Sept. 13.
The French Ambassador to Tokyo
and former Minister to China, Count de Martel, who arrived at Le Havre to-day on furlough, when interviewed by a representative of "Le Matin" dismissed the rumours that a conflict was looming between Japan and the Soviet-Union or between Japan and the United States as a result of Japan's Manchurian policy.
The Ambassador admitted, however, that America was not enthusiastic about the Japanese placing their hands on Manchuria.
Referring to the Lytton report which will be placed before the League of Nations at the end of this month, the Ambassador stated that China was relying on the League to attain what she believes to be her right.—Trans-Ocean Kuo

COUNSEL PREPARES CHENG'S APPEAL

Application To Be Made To London.

Mr. R. C. H. Lim, one of the counsel for the defence in the Cheng Kwok-yau case, is busily engaged in preparing the necessary papers to be sent to the Privy Council, for leave to appeal for Cheng Kwok-yau, who was sentenced to death by Chief Justice, Sir Joseph Kemp on Wednesday morning.
If right to appeal is granted, the Privy Council will, within a week or a fortnight afterwards, commence the hearing of the case.
Cheng was convicted of procuring the murder of George Fung, and his conviction was affirmed by the Full Court on Monday last.

"Y" Residents Want Voice In Board

Mr. Cassidy Promises To Advance Plan

A HEATED DEBATE

The question of whether or not the House Committee should be elected to stand between the Board of Directors and the Members, was discussed heatedly at a meeting of resident and non-resident members of the European Y.M.C.A. held last night in the West Lounge. The meeting was convened to consider the winter programme and elect committees to serve on the different sections of the "Y's" activities.
Mr. F. C. Manning, a resident member, raised the question—after the committees had been elected—and moved "That this meeting elect a House Committee."

Mr. P. S. Cassidy, who presided, said he doubted if Mr. Manning was in order. He added "The Board of Directors would be quite prepared at any time to consider anything coming from the residents, and it is quite probable they would approve of the election of a small committee. Still I do not think you are in order at this meeting. After this meeting, if residents would like to discuss the matter with me unofficially, I will be only too pleased to put it before the Board."

Mr. Manning stated he felt it was time that some representations be made. It should never be that residents leave the Y.M.C.A. because they are dissatisfied. A House Committee could do a lot of good in dealing with residents' complaints, and putting them before the Board of Directors for consideration.

Mr. Jeffries: I think many non-residents would support the formation of a house committee. They are interested in the swimming pool and the west lounge, and might very well have one representative on the committee.

Board's Interest.

Mr. Manning: This is just another attempt to shelve the idea of a house committee. Now is the time to deal with it and if the Board of Directors refuse to consider it, then they have not the interests of the institution at heart.

The chairman: Be careful what you say, Mr. Manning. The Board of Directors have the interests of this place at heart. And I would remind you I came here to discuss the winter sports programme.

Mr. S. A. Gray: I think the proposition is entirely out of order.
Members have the annual meeting and surely the annual meeting is the place to discuss this thing. It has nothing to do with the purpose for which this meeting was called.
In addition members can demand an extraordinary general meeting.

"I Am In Order!"
Mr. Manning: I would remind
Mr. Gray that I have made inquiries and have found that I am in order.
The chairman stopped the debate and announced that he was prepared to hear the views of members but the discussion was closed to the Press.

At the conclusion Mr. Cassidy promised to put the matter before the Board of Directors and inform the secretary of their decision.

Association's Purposes.
Addressing the meeting, Mr.
Cassidy said that the activities of the Y.M.C.A. had been considerably extended by the opening of the swimming bath and all that went with it, and the addition of the new West wing had naturally brought in an increased number of residential members. "This association," said the speaker, "does exist for the good of the members, and we are an association that provides recreation, relaxation, refreshment, mental or otherwise,
and I might add, rejuvenation."

Mr. Cassidy emphasised the importance of plenty of sport and urged for new blood. They did not want committees to be the same year after year, and, in fact,
he thought that in Hong Kong,
they seldom were the same.

The Death of the A.D.C.
In regard to the literary and debating section, suggestions were put forward for mock trials and a Parliament.

Mr. E. R. Price, referring to the A.D.C., said that there was something wrong last year. Names of members wishing to act were posted up on a list and that was the last they had heard.

Mr. J. J. Ferguson remarked that if the A.D.C. had a definite task they fulfilled it. The difficulty, he thought, was not having a programme to work on.

Reference was also made to the non-return of borrowed books from the Library, members' forgetfulness in taking periodicals to their rooms from the lounge, and the mutilation of illustrated periodicals.

"BOYS LEAGUE OF NATIONS"

Support For Scout Movement Urged.

REV. WALDEGRAVE'S SPEECH

An appeal to the Y's Men's Club to help to foster the Boy Scout Movement was made during an address given by the Rev. G. T. Waldegrave, M.A., Commissioner of the Scouting movement in Hong Kong, at the weekly tiffin of the "Y's" Men's Club at Lane, Crawford's restaurant yesterday.

During his address, the speaker described the aims and object of the movement, and stated that it had been termed, the "Boys League of Nations."

Commencing his speech, the Commissioner said he appreciated the opportunity of speaking of the movement, especially as he found that generally speaking there was some haziness as to their aims and object. Therefore he planned to give a brief resume from the official organ of rules. One of the principal objects was to develop good citizenship among boys. Boys not of the British Empire, were bound as feasible citizens, to stick to the rules of the Scouting movement, and as long as they were guests in a British Colony it was a matter of courtesy to be obedient and loyal.

High ideals.

As regarded God it was the promise of the Scout to live up to the highest ideals within him, whatever God he believed in. The speaker then touched briefly on the oath taken by Chinese scouts.

Regarding the organization of the movement, he said that it was governed by the Head Council in London. There were 42 countries, all under the International Bureau, but unfortunately, China was not linked up to the Bureau at present. He anticipated that the matter would, however, soon be rectified.

After commenting on the local officers and the various sections of the movement, the speaker said that the Chief Scout, Lord Baden-Powell of Gilwell, noticed that boys worked and played in gangs. That was in 1908, and the Chief Scout devised plans to make those cliques of some use, to find the leading boy and make him the leader of the particular clique, and the next leading boy a kind of lieutenant, who at the present time was called the Patrol second. The rest of the boys were formed into the body of the patrol and that is how the system of patrols had originated. The speaker described them as knights going forth to right wrong in the world. They had the same system and spirit.

Court of Honour.

Regarding the rules, the speaker continued, these were drawn up by a Court of Honour, and it is the aim of all leaders to get their men to follow the rules. That was the only way of running a scout troop he said, for if one man drew up the rules, there would be discontent, and would ultimately result in the smashing up of the troop.

Chinese boys he continued, learn excessively quickly, and generally they learnt just enough to pass their badges. This was wrong, for badges were an incentive to learn more, but in fairness to the Chinese boys, they developed very well as scouts.

In the Colony, he said, there were four British troops, six mixed troops and 12 Chinese troops. Out of the 22 troops, twelve were school units. It had been found out here that the Chinese were splendid material and extraordinarily responsive. By saying this however, he did not wish to convey anything detrimental to the foreign boys, who were living in a foreign climate and in foreign conditions.

Proof of Value.

Pointing out a few proofs of the value of scouting to those about to embark on a career, the speaker said that one of his sea-scouts had recently gained second place in a marine examination of the Chinese Maritime Customs. The examination had been for 20 vacancies, and there had been 500 entrants. He also quoted other cases where scouts had been successful in examinations, and stated that they had all expressed their gratitude to the training received in the scouting movement, to which they held that success was mainly due. There was no doubt that scouting was of definite use in the battle of life, and it also had a definite application to the manner of living.

In concluding, he appealed to the members of the "Y's" Men's Club to consider seriously the finding of some means to help what is known as the "Boys League of Nations."

Hong Kong Threatened By Typhoon

A warning issued at 6.40 a.m. to-day stated that the typhoon was lying within 60 miles of longitude 117 E., by latitude 20 N., moving northwest. If the present track is maintained the gale will strike Hong Kong or the coast nearby.

The typhoon, which formed to the east of Luzon, is situated to the west of the Balintang Channel, moving north west.

Weather forecasts intimate that, even if the Colony escapes the full force of the typhoon, it will feel the gale and be swept by heavy rains.

Shipping has already commenced to take shelter and moored against emergency.

Harbour Busy.

In spite of the fact that No. 7 Typhoon Signal was hoisted this morning, the harbour presented a busy appearance, many small craft plying the harbour in the usual way.

The Yau-mati Shelter, however, was crowded, and from the early hours of the day, craft of every description made their way there. Police launches, Harbour Department launches, a Star Ferry, military lighters and passenger launches were there, while hundreds of masts of fishing junks formed a background.

Prepare for "Blow."

Three submarines, two in the process of being overhauled, and presenting a strange appearance with their coats of red lead, were moored off the Naval Yard, at Kowloon, not far from where a group of sailors on the river gunboat H.M.S. Moth, were making things shipshape in preparation for the anticipated "blow."

Men of the French river gunboat which lies nearby, were engaged on the same work, making fast the awnings and tying down all movable deck fittings.

The general opinion on the water-front this morning is that the typhoon will strike with great force if it keeps heading in this direction. The sarnpan people, who can generally "feel" a typhoon before the signals are hoisted, do not seem perturbed.

200 Miles Away.

A report from the Observatory issued at 10.43 this morning stated the typhoon is 200 miles south-east of Hong Kong. Its direction is given as N.W. or W.N.W.

The local forecast indicates fresh N.E. winds which may probably attain gale force. Rain is expected.

OCTOGENARIAN PASSES AWAY.

Death Of Mrs. To Ming At Canton.

LARGE FAMILY.

The death has occurred at Canton of Mrs. To Ming, the aged wife of the late Dr. To Ming, and mother of Dr. Coxion To, the proprietor of The Pharmacy, Asiatic Building.

Deceased, who was in her 86th year, is survived by three sons, Dr. Coxion To, Dr. Herbert To (dentist), Dr. To Tat-chiu, a dentist at Canton, and three daughters. One, Dr. Y. K. To, predeceased her.

Deceased leaves 18 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren to mourn her loss. One of her grandsons is Dr. Ernest To, a son of Dr. Coxion To.

She also leaves a sister, Mrs. Tang Ping-shi, who is 91 years of age.

$1,000 FINE FOR OPIUM OFFENCE.

Grass-Widow's Plea Fails.

Charged with keeping a place for the retailing of opium and with possession of 34 taels of raw opium, Wong Ying, a married woman, was fined $1,000 or five months' imprisonment by Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Magistracy this morning.

She pleaded that her husband was abroad and that she had two children to support. Her livelihood was gained by the sale of opium and her house was found to be equipped with the necessary apparatus for the dispensing of the drug.

KITE FLYERS ANNOY G.C.H. DOCTOR.

Fined $4 And Warned For Trespassing.

Two small boys, Lo Kam-pui, aged 17, and Ng Kan-on, aged 12, appeared before Mr. Schofield this morning in answer to a charge of trespassing in the grounds of the Government Civil Hospital.

The two had gone there to fly kites, and they chose a spot directly opposite the operating theatre and near Dr. I. Newton's house. They were very noisy and boisterous.

His Worship imposed fines of $4 each and warned the defendants to stay away from private grounds.

SUGGEST-ADDITIONS TO HOSPITAL

It is understood that matters relating to proposed additions to the Kowloon Hospital will be discussed at a meeting of the unofficial members of the Legislative Council to be held on Monday next.

It is anticipated that plans and funds will be considered at the meeting of the Legislative Council next Thursday.

DESTITUTE MAN Used As "Tool."

Aided Thief In Raid On Club House.

Alleged to have stolen or been accessory to the theft of 51 pieces of clothing and three pairs of shoes valued at $80, Tang Kuen, an unemployed coolie, appeared before Mr. Schofield at the Central Police Court this morning.

The defendant stated that he had been told to wait in the back yard of 369 Des Voeux Road, a house boys' club, while another man climbed in through a window, looted the premises and passed the stolen articles to him. He said he waited for some time and then saw his companion run out of the house and disappear. He was followed by four occupants of the club who had been awakened at the noise made by the marauder.

The defendant stood still and was arrested by a constable called by the house boys. Close to where he was standing, the complainants found all of their belongings.

He was charged with receiving stolen property and sentenced to three months' imprisonment. Before sentence was passed, His Worship remarked, "Another case of a destitute man being used as a tool."

VOLUNTEERS PLAN DARING ATTACK.

Manchukuo Capital Is Objective.

Acting in coordination with the Liaoning Volunteers now attacking Shenyang (Mukden), the Kirin Volunteers are planning a large scale enveloping movement on Changchun, the capital of the Manchukuo Government.

Under instructions from the Japanese military, two Manchukuo brigades have been sent from Hailun and Chingcheng to check the operations of the Heilungkiang troops under General Ma Chan-shan in the vicinity of the Hulan-Hailun Railway.

It is reported that Antachan station on the western section of the Chinese Eastern Railway has been occupied by 4,000 Volunteers under Li Ching-mei. Yushu, in Kirin province, is also reported to have been taken by the loyal Kirin troops—Kuo Min.

MILLIONAIRE HELD AS COMMUNIST.

Smuggling Propaganda Into Finland.

Fourteen foreign agitators, allegedly in the pay of the Communist Russian Communist Party, were arrested here today by the political police.

Among those arrested is an Agent named "P. P. P." and a Russian named "A. A. A." who were charged with the smuggling of propaganda into Finland.

The Russian named "A. A. A." was alleged to have been in the pay of the Communist Party and to have been smuggling propaganda into Finland.

GRAVITY OF ORIENT CRISIS OBSERVED

Japan Criticised By London Press.

AMERICA WON'T ACT

London, Yesterday.

The gravity in the Far East position is everywhere recognised. The Newspaper Chronicle says the position, from the viewpoint of international morality, could not be worse and refers to the "deplorable rakes of progress" of British policy, which afforded "encouragement to the Japanese militarism to go from strength to strength until now the Japanese proclaim defiantly that as far as they are concerned, the League of Nations, America and the Lytton Report can all go to a hotter place than Jericho."

The paper predicts gloomy prospects for the world "as long as Japanese imperialism is undefeated" and says that as a settlement cannot be accomplished by mediation or conciliation, the task is to help Chinese imperialism.—Reuter.

Sympathy For Japan.

Rome, Yesterday.

The average Italian regards the recognition of Manchukuo as the inevitable result of the pressure of economic forces driving Japan to seek stable markets for the expansion of her trade and population. Italians are inclined to sympathize, considering that Japan, like Fascist Italy, must find outlets. To oppose the Japanese penetration of a country which is under populated and under developed would be hypocrisy in Italian eyes, even running counter to the Fascist serious duty of developing the natural wealth of a country.—Reuter.

U. S. Delays Action

Washington, Yesterday.

That Japan's recognition of Manchukuo will not precipitate a new move until the Lytton report is considered, is the opinion gathered from the State Department by the correspondent of the New York Times.

If China seeks to invoke the Nine Power Pact, the State Department will not act until the Lytton Report is published, or perhaps not even until the League of Nations has acted upon it.—Reuter.

Excitement Is High

Shanghai, Yesterday.

Excitement among the Chinese populace in Shanghai, Nanking and elsewhere is intensifying over Japan's recognition of the Manchukuo.

The Japanese have strong naval forces at Shanghai, Nanking and Hankow. There were persistent rumours in Shanghai to-day that the Japanese had order a landing at Nanking but this appears to be without foundation.

JAPAN RAIL PLANS PROTESTED.

Warning Is Sounded By Moscow Press.

Moscow, Sept. 13.

The Japanese plans for the completion of the railway system in Northern Manchuria have evoked a long echo in Soviet newspapers.

"Krasnaya Svesda," the central organ of the Red Army, insists that those plans are inspired solely by strategic considerations. Particularly the contemplated linking-up of the Kirin-Tannu railway with Ninguta and Sanhsing (Hsiao) will, the paper adds, enable Japan to transport her troops northwards, close along the border of the Soviet Union.—Transocean Kuomin.

FRANCE HONOURS SENOR ZAMORA.

Pay Respects To New Republic.

Paris, Sept. 13.

The Cabinet Council has decided to bestow on the President of the Spanish Republic, Senor Alcalá Zamora, the Grand Cross of the Legion of Honour.

Commenting on this decision, Premier Herriot stated that the award was intended to demonstrate "the sympathy and friendship" of France for the Spanish nation.—Transocean Kuomin.

The Id. Tai Shun, one of the Hong Kong Chinese and Malay Steamship Companies, is preparing to put into operation a new line which will connect Hong Kong with the Malay Peninsula and the East Indies.

ELLSWORTH VINES LEADS THE WORLD

COCHET HANDICAPPED IN U.S. TOURNEY FINAL

GOES DOWN IN STRAIGHT SETS

BRITISH PROSPECTS FOR 1933 NOT HIGHLY RATED.

Ellsworth Vines, who joined a select band of tennis players by winning the Wimbledon title in his first year of entry, can now be ranked as the world's leading player after his two victories over Henri Cochet, the French ace who has held sway for the last three years.

Last Saturday Vines completely outplayed Cochet in the Final Round of the American National Singles Championship at Forest Hills. He won in straight sets to retain his title. During his tour of Europe Vines met with only two defeats—Harry Hopman (Australia) defeated him in the London Championships and Jean Borotra (France) surprised him in the Challenge Round of the Davis Cup in Paris.

Forest Hills, L. I., Sept. 10. Ellsworth Vines today successfully defended his U. S. national tennis title, winning in three sets from Henri Cochet of France, who has ruled the tennis world for several years.

The scores were 6-4, 6-4, 6-4. The victory gave Vines the unofficial world title, inasmuch as he was repeating his victory of the Davis Cup Challenge Round over the French master.

Vines' claim to world honours is not, however, an unclouded one. Jean Borotra beat the lanky Californian in the Davis Cup Challenge Round, but Borotra's record does not compare otherwise with Vines', who now has both Wimbledon and United States titles.

The championship match started fast and furious, with Vines breaking through Cochet's service to take first blood.

The Frenchman, under the mental handicap of his defeat at Auteuil, was at the base line in several exchanges.

Vines kept the upper hand throughout, outmanoeuvring Cochet and scoring with tremendous smashes.

A throng of 15,000 spectators saw the American star take the title.

COCHET'S DISADVANTAGE
The Frenchman went into the final match with a slight disadvantage, as he had to play off the deciding set of his semi-final match with Wilmer Allison earlier in the day.

Their match was called on account of darkness last night with each possessing two sets, and the final set was prolonged to a 7-5 count.

Observers did not believe this was a serious physical factor in the final match, as in all Cochet only played four sets today. It might have added to the nervousness of the declining world champion, however.

Cochet was forced to the utmost to win from Allison, the count being 6-1, 10-12, 4-6, 6-3, 7-5.

Cochet's play against Allison, was featured by brilliant volleys, while the American's game profited by accurate and fast service. In the fourth match both missed frequently because of darkness.

The match was delayed in starting owing to a struggle previously in the other semi-final of 2 hours and 40 minutes between Vines and Clifford Sutter, who almost upset the American champion. Vines threw caution to the winds and played brilliantly to recover the match, after he had almost lost it.

Vines won from the New Orleans star, M. S. ranking No. 6 player, by the count of 4-6, 6-3, 12-10, 10-8, 6-1.

It was the kind of a fight which tennis stars love to see. There was determination on each side of the net. Time and again the sets went to deuce as the opponents strove for supremacy.

AMAZING RALLY
After Sutter annexed the first two sets it appeared that Vines would be finished, but he staged his remarkable rally and took the third set after it had gone twice the normal length.

After Vines evened the count by taking the fourth set Sutter's defence materially weakened, and Vines took the final set without difficulty.

The unseating of Cochet by Vines makes him the first American who has had the right to claim world tennis supremacy since William T. Tilden bowed to Rene Lacoste in 1925. In that year Lacoste, won from Tilden in the Davis Cup play, but America retained the Cup.

AMERICAN AMATEUR TOURNEY

Somerville Breaks Course Record With 68.

QUARTER-FINALIST

Francis Ouimet Among Last Four

Baltimore, To-day. "Sandy" Somerville, the Canadian champion, and the only player outside the United States to be left in the American Amateur Golf Championship, yesterday returned a card of 68 for the first 18 holes in his quarter match over 26 holes return-final match over 36 holes—2 under par and breaking the course figures— to eliminate Blaney (Massachusetts) by 6 and 5.

McCarthy, the American Walker Cup player who beat Lister Hartley by 3 and 2 in the International contest, defeated Yates, conqueror of Eric McRae, by 2 and 1 in the Second Round.

Gulford (Massachusetts) beat Evans (Chicago) by 5 and 4 in the quarter finals, while Francis Ouimet encountered stern opposition from Johnny Fischer before emerging victorious by one up, and Goodman (Nebraska) secured a narrow win over McCarthy by one up.

The quarter-finalists who will play off their matches to-day are Somerville (Canada), Francis Ouimet (U.S.A.) and holder, Gulford (U.S.A.) and Goodman (U.S.A.).

Three records have now been equalled or broken in the U.S. Amateur:—

(1) Johnny Fischer (U.S.A.) returned a card of 142 for 38 holes, equaling the record qualifying score of Clark Corkran in 1924 and Bobby Jones in 1927 and 1930.

(2) Francis Ouimet (U.S.A. and holder) returned a card of 80 for the first 9 holes in the second qualifying round. The previous record was 81 by Bobby Jones in 1927.

(3) Somerville (Canada) returned a card of 68 for the first 18 holes in the quarter-finals to break the course figures.

BRADBURY & NICHOL VERY STEADY

Brown Canny Player.

HAMPTON FINDS GREEN PUZZLING

Shanghai, Sept. 13.

The Hong Kong Interport Lawn Bowlers started off well yesterday when they easily defeated the Club Lusitano in a friendly rink game by 32-8, on the latter's green in Hongkew Park.

The Hong Kong four were J. C. Brown (skip), W. B. Bradbury (No. 3), R. S. Nichol (No. 2) and H. Hampton (lead). Lusitano were represented by J. M. C. Lopes (skip), A. J. Roza (No. 3), A. F. Gomes (No. 2) and T. J. d'Almeida (lead).

The game itself was not a good one and gave very little indication of how the Hong Kong men are, owing to the green making good bowling practically impossible. Bradbury and Nichol played a steady game, Brown as skip had very little to do but showed himself a very canny player, while Hampton, with the exception of two or three ends, could not get the green at all.

The Lusitano players, with the exception of A. F. Gomes, took the game too seriously and in consequence fell down badly. Gomes was by far the best of the four and played a good game. Lopes at times had bad luck, just failing to get the shot by the merest fraction, but was not playing his usual game by any means.

The Hong Kong men started off with a six at the first end, Lusitano getting a single on the next, then Hong Kong scored two singles and Lusitano followed with two. In the next four ends Hong Kong scored 9 shots, Lusitano getting a two on the 11th end. From the 12th to the 17th Hong Kong piled on 14 shots, Lusitano getting a single on the 18th. The next end went to Hong Kong, who got a single, and Lusitano won the 20th and 21st ends with singles. Hong Kong winning by 24 shots, 32-8.

After the game the Hong Kong team were entertained at a dinner at the Club Lusitano in the Pearce Apartments.

This afternoon Hong Kong will play the Shanghai Lawn Bowls Club a friendly rink game, starting at 8 p.m. The Hong Kong four will be U. Omar (skip), H. Hampton (No. 3), R. S. Nichol (No. 2) and G. L. Buchanan (lead) and the S.L.B.C. four J. Munro (skip), B. Baldwin (No. 3), F. Hornbrook (No. 2) and F. Large (lead).—North China Daily News.

MAURICE TATE TAKEN ILL

MAURICE TATE TAKEN ILL

May Not Accompany Tourists To-morrow.

THIRD SET BACK FOR M.C.C.

London, To-day.

The All-England cricket touring party received yet another set-back yesterday when Maurice Tate, holder of all Test bowling records, was taken ill. It is considered highly improbable that Tate will accompany the team which sails for Australia on Saturday.

The Sussex and England stock-bowler was busy packing his luggage for the trip to Australia when he was suddenly taken ill. He was sent to bed with a high temperature which was probably caused by nervous trouble due to over-exertion.—Reuter.

This is the third set-back that the M. C. C. Selection Committee has received. In the first place R. W. V. Robins, the Middlesex all-rounder, declined to make the trip, after being selected, for domestic reasons. This was followed by the Duleep Singh bombshell, and his departure for Switzerland on medical advice.

The vacancy caused by Robins dropping out was given to Hedley Verity, the Yorkshireman, while the Sussex captain was replaced by Paynter, the young Lancashire batsman, after Ernest Tyldesley had declined the invitation.

Should Maurice Tate be unable to make the trip it is probable that Sam Staples will be given his first opportunity. The Nottingham bowler is also a reliable batsman on occasion.

TOURIST TROPHY THRILLS

2 CARS ACTUALLY TOUCH AND CARRY ON!

SIR H. BIRKIN'S RECORD

DIXON CRASHES ON RIGHT-ANGLE CORNER AFTER SUPERB DISPLAY.

A thrilling motor-car speed duel in the International Tourist Trophy Race over the Ards Circuit at Belfast resulted in a spectacular victory for British cars. Drivers of Riley cars won the first and second places. The winner was C. R. Whitcroft, who completed the 410 miles of the course in 4 hrs. 58 min. 4 sec. His average speed for the thirty laps was 74.23 miles per hour—and he beat the second Riley by only 70 seconds. The result was as follows:—

1. C. R. Whitcroft (Riley) 4 hrs. 58 min. 4 sec. (Average speed 74.23 m.p.h.).
2. G. E. T. Eyston (Riley) 4 hrs. 59 min. 27 sec. (Average speed 73.90 m.p.h.).
3. E. R. Hall (M. G. Midget) 5 hrs. 7 min. 58 sec. (Average speed 69.93 m.p.h.).
4. Earl Howe (Alfa Romeo) 5 hrs. 9 min. 56 sec. (Average speed 68.53 m.p.h.).
5. Sir Henry Birkin (Alfa Romeo) 5 hrs. 12 min. 45 sec. (Average speed 79.79 m.p.h.).

Only fourteen of the 32 starters low retired, through mechanical trouble.

Half a million spectators assembled at the various points along the track, thousands having taken up their places during the night. The drama was provided by the spectacle of F. Dixon, once a famous racing motor-cyclist, and now taking part as an independent competitor, for the first time in an important car race. And at the end of an hour Dixon, in his Riley, was leading, with an average speed of 74.53 miles an hour, with official Rileys next in order, and Sir Henry Birkin racing grimly in his big Alfa Romeo.

Sir Henry, who had Major Humphrey Butler, Prince George's Equerry, as his mechanic, broke the lap record three times within this first hour. His best speed was 82½ miles an hour, when he covered a circuit in 9 minutes 58 seconds.

Second and third places at the end of the hour were held by G. Eyston and V. Gillow, each in a Riley. At the end of the second hour Dixon still held his lead, with Eyston second, Whitcroft (Riley) third, and Sir H. Birkin fourth.

This left Whitcroft and Eyston, both driving Rileys, lying first and second, though E. R. Hall (M. G. Midget) and Earl Howe (Alfa Romeo) were challenging the leaders. Dixon's crash marred a wonderful performance, for he had averaged over 74 miles an hour, and had broken all records for the course in his class.

Delays in the pits caused Sir Henry Birkin to drop back to eighth place, but on his return he quickly got going again, and put up a new lap record, covering the 13.25 miles in 9 min. 58 sec., at a speed of slightly under 83 m.p.h. This was the fourth time he had put up a new figure, and soon afterwards he accomplished the feat for a fifth time, in 9 min. 52 sec. (Continued on page 9.)

GOLFING MEMBERS OF K.C.C.

Reunion At K.G.C. On September 25.

MEAD-SHIELD COMPETITION.

Arrangements have been made for the annual reunion of golfing members of the Kowloon Cricket Club, which will take place at Kowloon City, by permission of the Kowloon Golf Club, on Sunday, September 25.

Members of the Kowloon Golf Club are requested to note that starting times have been reserved for this match from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. and from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m.

The Mead Shield will be competed for on Medal Play over 18 holes. This shield was first up for competition when the Kowloon Cricket Club had a golfing section and shared the King's Park course with the United Services Recreation Club and the Bowling Green Club. When King's Park was taken over by the Government, the Kowloon Golf Club was formed and a course developed at Kowloon City. In the formation of the Kowloon Golf Club the three Clubs already mentioned played a prominent part, and each year the Kowloon Golf Club grants the use of its course for the annual reunion of K.C.C. golfers, many of whom are among the founders of the Club.

Members of the Kowloon Cricket Club who wish to participate, are requested to sign the list which has been posted at the K.C.C. Club House, or to send their names (together with handicap, if any) to the Special Secretary, Mr. E. R. Price, c/o the Chamber of Commerce. Tiffin will be arranged for on the 25th at the Kowloon Golf Club's new club house, and four-somes will be played in the afternoon.

ELLSWORTH VINES

The next year Lacoste defeated Tilden in the Davis Cup, when France first obtained the cup, and also won the U.S. title. Cochet was meanwhile improving, and arose to outshine his country man in 1928. Since then, until this season, Cochet has been supreme.

Cochet's only bright mark this year was his victory in the men's singles at Auteuil over De Stefani of Italy for the title, and his French doubles championship, won in company with Borotra.

The three big tennis events of the year, outside of the Davis Cup play, are the Wimbledon, U.S. and Auteuil matches. With Vines winning two of these, and defeating the champion of the third twice, the defeat handed him by Borotra in the Davis Cup play will not prevent him from being ranked as the world's No. 1 player for 1932 by most experts. Borotra failed to play impressively elsewhere except for his stellar performance in the Davis Cup Challenge Round, when his efforts saved the cup for France.

EXCUSE FOR VINES.

Many experts, in view of events of the rest of the season, will be willing to concede that Borotra was probably playing over his head in that series, and make some slight allowance for the fact that Vines was participating in his first challenge round of Davis Cup play.

In the light of the utter collapse of the British players this year, against the Germans, in the Davis Cup play, at Wimbledon and here at Forest Hills, many believe the British will not offer serious tennis competition next year.

Cochet and Borotra both appear to be on the decline.

The German pair, Gottfried von Cramm and Daniel Prenn, who were unfortunately not at Forest Hills, loom on the horizon as possible real contenders, because of their able Davis Cup play.

The U.S. national championships and the Davis Cup Challenge Round make Allison appear in a more favourable light, while Sutter's able performance against Vines was impressive in the semi-finals.

The U.S. championships concluded to-day with the brilliant ending leaves America in a very promising position for the event of the tennis world, for her own players, and the best of the world, are in the field.

KOWLOON CRICKET CLUB

History Of The Club Since 1904.

TO-MORROW'S BIG EVENT

Opening of Club House to Conclude Ten Years' Work

To-morrow afternoon will commence a new chapter in the history of the Kowloon Cricket Club when Mrs. Southorn, the wife of H.E. the Officer Administering the Government, the Hon. Mr. W. T. Southorn, opens the new Club House at 4.30 p.m., thus concluding the work of ten years.

The following is an extract from the attractive and interesting brochure compiled by the Committee of the Kowloon Cricket Club:

China Mail Sports Diary.

TO-DAY.

MEETINGS—Kowloon Rugby Club (Y.M.C.A.), 9 p.m.

TO-MORROW.

CRICKET—Kowloon C.C. v. H. R. B. Hancock's XI at K.G.C. at 2 p.m.

MISCELLANEOUS—Opening of Kowloon C.C. Pavilion.

RACING—Ninth Extra Race Meeting.

The Club was formed on October 6, 1904. The Government allotted this ground to the Club in 1905 but it was not fit to play matches on and the members had to depend on the courtesy of other clubs at Happy Valley for the use of their grounds. The membership at that time was about seventy-five. The first president was Mr. J. Macgowan and the first captain Dr. J. H. Swann. The Club-house was a matchless erected at the north end of the ground.

In 1903 The South-China Morning Post presented for competition a League Cricket Shield which has been won by the Club on five occasions, viz., 1905-06, 1906-07, 1921-22, 1926-27 and 1928-29.

The Club's first League cricket match was played on the Parsee Cricket Club ground on October 17, 1904, against the Army Ordnance Cricket Club and, although we lost the match, the K.C.C. played a very promising game.

The Children's Sports were inaugurated on New Year's Day, 1906, and have been an annual function ever since.

HOCKEY AND GOLF.

On January 18, 1908, the foundation stone of the Club-house was laid by the then president, Mr. H. N. Mody, and the building, of which the architect was Mr. E. M. Hazeland and the cost about $4,000, was opened on July 11, 1908, by His Excellency Sir Frederick Lugard.

Some time before June 1908, the A.A.A. laid a cinder track round the ground for the purpose of holding racing events, but the project did not fulfill the hopes of its promoters.

In June, 1908, a hockey team was formed with C. W. Jeffries as captain. The first match was played against the U.S.R.C. on June 29, the U.S.R.C. winning by six goals to one.

In 1909 a Golf Section was formed and was very popular until the course was given up to make provision for other playing grounds. Tennis has been played since the Club's inception and S. E. Green held the championship for many years.

LAWYER BOWLS.

The Lawry Bowls Section was formed in 1913 and the Club has since won with this team and the second division of the trophy at the Hong Kong Bowls Club. The Hong Kong Bowls Club was formed in 1913 and the Club has since won with this team and the second division of the trophy at the Hong Kong Bowls Club.

ARTILLERY AQUATIC SPORTS

Breast, Back and Free Style Race:—1, Gr. Selley; 2, L. Br. Harris; 3, Gr. Hyde.

The Hon. Brian Lewis (Talbot) came within inches of disaster when, at Bradshaw's Brae, a smaller car skidded and jumped across the road into his path. The two cars actually touched, but Lewis's skill saved the situation. He swerved and got by in the nick of time.

The first bad accident occurred when Major A. T. G. Gardner, one of the team of M. G. Midgets, crashed on the top of Glen Hill, at a dangerous left-hand bend. Major Gardner had a compound fracture of the leg and was taken to hospital. His mechanic escaped serious injury.

With six miles to go two Rileys were leading, with E. R. Hall (M. G.) some miles behind, third, and Earl Howe fourth. Birkin had had minor engine troubles, which delayed him; in spite of some hectic driving and a new lap record of 9 min. 58 sec.—a speed of 82.9 m.p.h.

and forwarded to the Prince of Wales Fund.

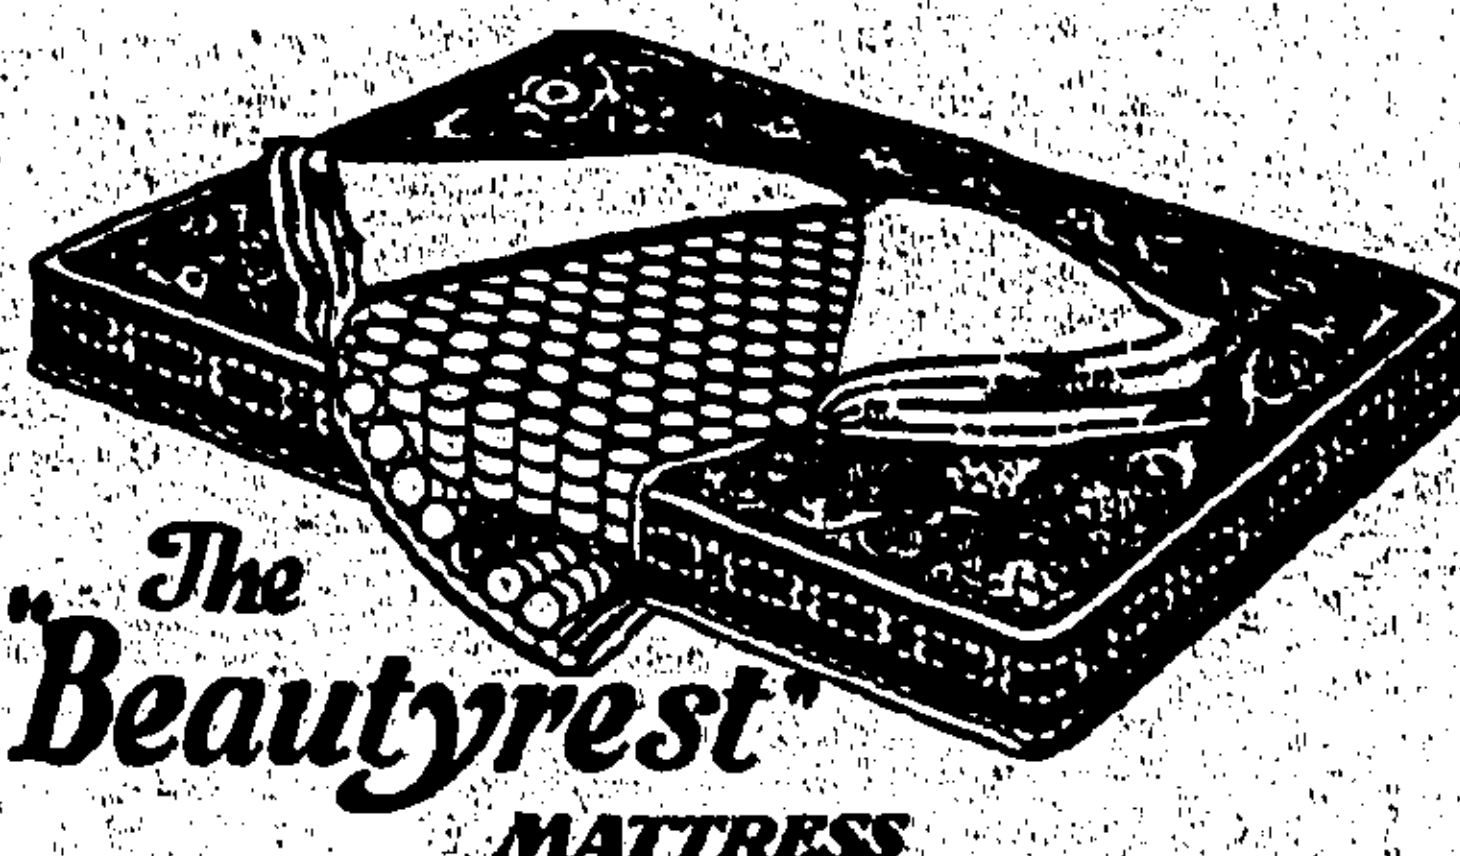

AD TO CHARITIES. As from Armistice Day, 1922, the following sums have been raised yearly by means of auctions, etc., for Earl Haig's Fund:—1922, $562.50; 1923, $689.50; 1924, $2,369.35; 1925, $1,018; 1926, $860; 1927, $1,190; 1928, $1,315.25; 1929, $1,121.30; 1930, $506.25; and 1931, $1,360.

Dr. C. Forsyth was president of the Club from 1910 to 1923. Mr. R. E. Lindsell has filled this office since 1924, and Mr. Ezra Abraham that of Vice-President over the same period.

CLUB CAPTAINS. The following gentlemen have filled the office of Captain of the Club:—

1907-1908, S. Lightfoot; 1908-1910, J. P. Robinson; 1910-1911, Major E. H. Oakley; 1911-1912, A. H. Mearns; 1912-1913, J. P. Robinson; 1913-1914, J. P. Robinson; 1914-1915, J. P. TWO BANISHEES CONVICTED.

Cousins Who Returned To Visit An Aunt?

Two cousins, Leung Yee and Leung Chung, appeared before Mr. Schofield at the Central Magistracy this morning on a charge of returning from banishment. Both had been banished recently for ten years, after numerous convictions for larceny.

They pleaded that they had come to see their aunt, who lived at Tai Hang, where they were arrested by a Chinese detective. Nine months' hard labour was imposed on each.

POLICE PARADE ON THURSDAY.

Medal Presentation Ceremony.

A parade of the Hong Kong Police Force will be held at the Central Police Station Compound on Thursday, September 22, at 5 p.m. H.E. the Officer Administering the Government, Hon. Mr. Wilfrid T. Southern, C.M.G., will inspect the European, Indian, Chinese and Shantung contingents, and will also present medals.

DOLLAR REMAINS UNCHANGED.

Silver Also Steady.

After recovering $\frac{1}{4}$ and being quoted at $1\frac{1}{4}$ yesterday, the local dollar remained unchanged to-day.

Very slight alteration in the price of silver is recorded, spot silver weakening $1\frac{1}{16}$ to $1\frac{1}{16}$, while forward silver remained steady at 18.

The London on New York cross rate is quoted this morning at $\pounds 3.47\frac{1}{2}$ as against $\pounds 3.48\frac{1}{4}$ yesterday, and the New York on London rate changed from $\pounds 3.47\frac{1}{2}$ to $\pounds 3.48\frac{1}{4}$.

Dangers of Travel in North Area

London, To-day.

In view of the present conditions in Manchuria, British subjects proceeding to and from the Far East are advised for the present not to incur risks by travelling over the Harbin-Siberian route.

It was on this railway that the train from Changchun to Harbin was derailed on Sunday and attacked by brigands, ten persons being killed, 16 seriously injured and 60 receiving minor injuries.

On the Eastern branch of the Chinese Eastern Railway on September 11, another outbreak occurred, a train being fired at by brigands, two persons killed and 25 wounded.—British Wireless Service.

In response to an urgent telegram from the Nanking Government, Mr. Sun Fo, will leave for Shanghai to-morrow.

BUILDERS IN THE VATICAN.

The Pope Goes On Working.

REPLACING ROOF.

Rome, August 15.

At the present moment the Pope is living beneath a complicated framework of scaffolding and barricades, and all the noises of a factory break the traditional quietude of his private apartments.

The work of reinforcing the strength of the more ancient part of the Vatican building has now reached the personal rooms of his Holiness, and workmen and engineers have invaded the place—but Pius XI. refuses to move. The work is accordingly going on all around him, and his apartment is said to look and sound like a builder's yard. The Pope takes a keen interest in the constructional work being carried out over his head.

Suspicious cracks were observed at various parts of the old fabric after the collapse of the Library last December, and the renovations were ordered under the supervision of the Pope's nephew, the Milanese engineer, Signor Franco Ratti.

Steel For Teak.

The old teak beams which support the ceilings of the Pope's rooms are being replaced by steel girders, and similar changes are being made on the second and third storeys of the Palace of Sixtus V. The present electricity power house of the Vatican is to be demolished and rebuilt on special foundations and on a larger scale commensurate with the new Vatican City at a more remote point in the grounds, where all danger to the old buildings by vibration will be eliminated. A new hydraulic and heating system will also be installed.

Knowing that all this work, and especially the changing of the beams, would mean very considerable disturbance of the Pope, the chief engineer discreetly hinted that this would be a good moment for his Holiness to visit the papal villa at Castelgandolfo, now ready for occupation.

Pius XI., however, has refused to take the hint, saying that any work of construction would never bother him. He may make a brief visit to Castelgandolfo in the course of the month, but his intentions he keeps strictly to himself. Meanwhile he refuses to leave the Vatican, and works serenely among the hammering of the workmen, the chatter of the chain pulleys and the complete disorder and invasion of his personal sanctum.

CONDEMNED MAN SUED FOR $3,000.

Actions Commenced Against Cheng.

Three claims of $1,000 each were brought by the China Finance Corporation against Cheng Kwok-yun, the principle figure in the Village Road Murder Trial, and who is now awaiting execution in Hong Kong. The hearing of the claims was adjourned sine die.

Mr. D. L. Strellett, appeared for the defendant, and Mr. J. B. Prentis for the complainants, the latter intimating that he was awaiting further instructions from his clients in Shanghai.

HOPE FOR SUCCESS OF ARMS PARLEY.

Mr. Henderson Feels Confident.

Arthur Henderson, President of the Disarmament Conference, at the National Peace Council luncheon to-day said: "I cannot bring myself to believe that the statesmen who assemble at Geneva in the next few days are prepared to take the responsibility of encouraging a competitive race in armaments and the inevitable danger of war arising from the existence of large Armies, Navies and Air Forces."

"The apprehension that exists in no way causes me surprise, but I do not fully share the apprehension because I am convinced the failure of this Disarmament Conference would be a terrible disaster in the life of Europe and the world."

"I refuse to contemplate failure." Referring to Germany's arms equality claim, he said he thought they could go forward with their work next week feeling that with good-will and conciliation this incident could be settled to the advantage not only of Germany and the vanquished countries, but of Europe and the world.—British Wireless Service.

GANDHI WILL LEAVE PRISON WHEN FASTING.

Policy Announced.

London, To-day.

The Government's intentions regarding Mahatma Gandhi, in view of his vow to begin on September 20 his "fast unto death," were announced in the Legislative Assembly at Simla yesterday afternoon and are set out in the following statement issued by the India Office in London:—

"Gandhi has made it clear, by his correspondence with the Prime Minister, that he proposes to starve himself to death, not as a protest against his detention or against measures taken to deal with the civil disobedience generally, nor with the object of securing his release, but on a point of principle which is not related to the civil disobedience movement."

"It has been decided that as soon as Gandhi actually begins his fast he should be removed from jail to a suitable place of private residence and the only restriction that will be imposed upon him there, as at present is contemplated, is that he should be served with an order directing him to remain there. It is hoped that it will prove unnecessary to impose any further restriction on Gandhi, but this is matter that will depend primarily on whether the liberty accorded to him is found to lend itself to the promotion of the civil disobedience movement or any similar agitation directed against Government, or to affect the maintenance of law and order.—British Wireless Service."

The Chinese gunboat, Ho Chow, stated to be the finest vessel of its class in the Canton Navy, has been ordered to Hong Kong, and is now anchored off Shamsui. The Ho Chow was recently rebuilt at a great cost and is now equipped with modern armament.
